

The Farmington Community Center Presents...

VERMONT, FIT FOR A KING

KING ARTHUR FLOUR * CASTLE HILL RESORT * SIMON PEARCE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2016

This morning, we head north into the green mountains of Vermont. Our first stop of the day is at the VT Country Store which opened in 1946. A couple generations later, the store still holds its charm. Items for sale at the VT Country Store include those that often cannot be purchased elsewhere.

Our coach will wind us through the roads of Vermont to Ludlow; where we will have lunch at the beautiful Castle Hill Resort & Spa. Our pre-select entrée choices are: Chicken Marsala with Wild Mushrooms and Marsala Wine Sauce over Angel Hair Pasta or Pan Seared Atlantic Salmon encrusted with Tomato and Fresh Herbs with a Cucumber and Caper Salad. Both entrees are served with a Garden Salad, Dinner Rolls, Dessert, Coffee, Tea, or Decaf.

This afternoon, we'll make a stop at the Simon Pearce Company, located in Windsor, VT. From the catwalk, you will be able to watch master glassblowers and potters at work.

The final stop this afternoon will lead us to King Arthur Flour Company. King Arthur Flour was founded in 1790 in Boston, MA, and is America's oldest flour company. In 1984 (after 194 years in Boston), the company moved to Norwich, VT, where the company is headquartered today and has become 100% employee-owned. Upon arrival, we will be greeted and taken on a tour.
