Town of Farmington Fire Department
Contractual Agreement for Required Years of Service
For Paid Training
Volunteer Firefighters & Emergency Medical Technicians

The Town of Farmington Fire Department (Department) wants to ensure that it is staffed by skilled, knowledgeable and experienced volunteer firefighters and emergency medical technicians (EMTs). Therefore, the Department will pay for training required for certification as either a firefighter or an EMT, contingent upon a commitment to remain with the Department for at least three (3) years.

All volunteers are required within two (2) years of their appointment to the Department to become either a Connecticut Certified Fire Fighter I or, subject to the approval of their Fire Chief, instead become a Connecticut Certified Emergency Medical Technician (EMT). The certification is necessary to be eligible to respond to emergencies including, but not limited to, fire suppression, emergency medical care, rescue from entrapments or hazardous environment, and other responses where specific training is necessary.

Volunteers may also take additional training to include, but not limited to, certification courses, seminars, and conferences approved by the Director of Fire & Rescue Services. These courses are designed to provide additional knowledge and skill sets which will result in more professional and trained volunteers throughout the Town of Farmington Fire Department.

The Town of Farmington will reimburse volunteers for all such pre-approved training costs pending available budget funds. In exchange, the volunteer firefighter or emergency medical technician will commit to three (3) years of service to the Department while meeting the minimum requirements required to maintain active status within their assigned fire station. If the volunteer firefighter and/or emergency medical technician lets their required certification lapse, quits, is terminated and/or separates from the Town of Farmington Fire Department, that volunteer will be responsible for reimbursing the Town of Farmington a percentage of costs incurred for all required training that resulted in the attainment of a fire service or EMS certification through the Connecticut Fire Academy, regional fire schools, or an accepted training entity paid for by the Town of Farmington.

1 year of service completed = Responsible for 75% of the training costs

2 years of Service completed = Responsible for 50% of the training costs

3 years of service completed = Responsible for 0% of the training costs

By signing this contract, the undersigned acknowledges that he/she understands, agrees and commits to a term of three (3) years of service with the Department in exchange for the paid training they will receive while acting in the capacity of a volunteer firefighter and/or emergency medical technician with the Town of Farmington Fire Department.

By signing this contract, the undersigned further acknowledges and agrees that if he/she fails to stay the full three (3) years with the Department for any reason, including failing to maintain certification, quitting, termination and/or separation from the Town of Farmington Fire Department, he/she will be financially responsible for reimbursing the Town of Farmington for the percentage of costs incurred for all required and/or requested training during their time as a volunteer firefighter and/or emergency medical technician that resulted in the attainment of a certification with the Town of Farmington Fire Department.

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

Requesting Entity: _____

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing.¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later), by the agency that will receive your criminal history results, when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.²
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> and <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³
