CHAIR REPORT

APRIL 26, 2022

NEW & NOTEWORTHY

The 1928 Building Survey Results Are In!

- Thank you to those who participated in the 1928 Building Community Survey! The Center for Research and Public Policy stated that the response rate was extremely high.
- The survey results indicate strong support for retaining the 1928 Building (77.8% of respondents) and support for retaining the 1952, 1964, and 1978 sections (56.9% of respondents).
- Additionally, there is the potential to use federal American Rescue Plan Act funds to pay for a portion of the project(s).
- Based on the survey results, it is anticipated that the Town Council will establish a 1928 Building Committee at their May 10, 2022 meeting.
